

Dreams

By Christopher Hollis

They're made every day,
At any time, at any place,
Constantly changing...

One's thoughts and emotions,
One's ultimate fantasies,
One's escape from reality.

A projection of creativity,
A walk of the mind,
A path to fulfilling one's goals.

The strive towards perfection,
The quest for knowledge,
Truly, what dreams are made of.
